

Mrs. Bridget Katsriku is currently the Chairman of the Ghana Public Services Commission. Before assuming that role, Mrs. Katsriku held several key positions including the Director of Policy Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation. She was the Chief Director for nine years in the Civil Service, in the Ministry of Employment and Social Welfare and later in the Ministry of Tourism. She was responsible for the establishment of the Ghana HIV/AIDS Commission and headed it for two years.

Mrs. Katsriku is a product of the University of Ghana, Legon, with a degree in the Arts. She holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Public Administration, and numerous post graduate certificates in Management, Public Policy, Manpower Planning and Auditing.

Internationally, she is a Vice –Chairman of the African Association of Public Administration and Management (AAPAM) headquartered in Nairobi, Kenya, representing the whole of West Africa. She is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Commonwealth Association of Public Administration and Management (CAPAM). Mrs Katsriku has won several awards including Best Worker in the Civil Service in 1998, a National Award of the Order of the Volta in 2011, and an Honorary Doctorate Degree from the University of Ghana, 2016, for her excellence and contribution to the Public Service.